

Edward Deutsch, Esq.

Mr. Deutsch is a former Municipal Judge and a former City Attorney. He is a licensed Florida Real Estate Broker.

Senior partner in a south Florida based multi office law firm.

His extensive experience in all facets of commercial and residential real estate, construction, corporate practice, have enabled Mr. Deutsch to represent clients in large acquisitions, financing, leasing and dispositions.

His real estate/commercial practice, and mediation services have involved land-use entitlements, issues between buyers and sellers, construction contract disputes, governmental relations with the private sector, and issues with and between labor unions.

As a principal, Mr. Deutsch has developed office parks, distribution centers, anchored shopping centers, regional malls, convention center, and major public projects. His intimate knowledge of the development and construction process, from the viewpoint of either principal or attorney serves as an invaluable background for successful dispute resolution.